Transcripts, diplomas, certificates and other submitted documents which are not in English should be accompanied by an officially certified translation in English. Certified translation may be provided by your home institution. You are strongly advised to upload your supporting documents right after submitting your application. Late provision of supporting documents may cause delays in the processing of your application.

All supporting documents, including the electronic references, should be available to our Programme on or before the application closing date.

Please note that you are not required to mail your documents to the University by post during the application stage. Should you be given an admission offer by the University, you will receive a notification to submit your required documents<sup>1-5</sup>.

I have uploaded the following documents/have completed the followings in support of my application (please “✓” tick the boxes below where appropriate):

<input type="checkbox"/>	For all undergraduate and postgraduate qualifications attained from HKU , applicants should upload a copy of the official final transcript which includes a complete record of courses attended, grades, the overall result and the date of award/conferment.
<input type="checkbox"/>	For all undergraduate and postgraduate qualifications attained from institutions other than HKU , applicants should upload copies of the graduation certificate and the official final transcript which include a complete record of courses attended, grades, the overall result and the date of award/conferment. (If the grading system is not available on the transcript, please provide the official certification indicating the overall GPA issued by the university’s registry.)
<input type="checkbox"/>	For all current studies which have yet to be completed, applicants should upload a copy of their most up-to-date official transcript.
<input type="checkbox"/>	TOEFL / IELTS official score report for applicants from universities or comparable institutions outside Hong Kong of which the language of teaching and/or examination is not English. Applicants who have taken the TOEFL should request the Educational Testing Service (ETS) to send an official score report directly to the University (University’s TOEFL code: 9671). IELTS and TOEFL tests must be taken within two years prior to September 1 of each admissions year. IELTS Indicator and TOEFL Special Home Edition are not accepted.
<input type="checkbox"/>	I have provided the details of two academic referees in the online application system, who will subsequently receive a confidential referee survey via email. (We accept electronic references from official university/company email addresses only. References from personal email addresses (e.g. Gmail and 163.com) will NOT be considered. University may approach referees and their affiliated university/company for verification.)
<input type="checkbox"/>	One recent ENGLISH writing sample with word count. (Mandatory, 1000-1200 words, in Times New Roman with font size 12, saved in PDF format.)
